Crimson Courage will be hosting Red Ribbon Week during the week of October 22nd thru October 26th. The theme for this year is "Life is a Journey - Travel Drug Free". Think about all the places you will go. It would be nice to remember all these places and not miss out due to substance misuse. Youth are growing and their minds are still developing. Substance misuse can alter this growth and development and cause permanent damage to the brain and body. Traveling through life without baggage is much easier than dealing with addiction and problems affiliated with substance abuse. Take the easier path, travel drug free!

Crimson Courage will host a skate night on Wednesday, November 7th at Skate way from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Tickets ($5 each) will be available to purchase during lunch starting October 15th - Nov. 6th. Must sell 60 tickets to host event. Must have ticket for refund if event is cancelled. Bonus.....skate with some of your favorite JHS staff members that have agreed to participate in skate night!

Interact club is hosting a Halloween Party for the whole school tomorrow, at 7pm at Bogarts. Make sure to wear a costume! Tickets are available for $5.00 in the main office till October 25. . There will be food, drinks and a DJ.

There will be an Art Club meeting in room 705 after school today. We will be making Sketchbooks. We will also discuss t-shirt orders; t-shirts will be $15.00 each. See Mr. Homolka or Mrs. Packman with questions.

National Honor Society inductions will be held tonight in the JHS Auditorium at 7pm. This is a mandatory event for all NHS members as it counts as a societal meeting. Please dress in professional or formal clothes. The inductees will be receiving notifications of their acceptance in the mail within the week. Refreshments will be served after the induction ceremony. If you have questions or are unable to attend please contact Mr. Burke.

There will not be FCA tonight due to National Honor Society inductions. We will meet again next week
